Art Association Meeting. The November meeting of the Nor-wich Art association which was post-poned from last Monday, will take efbut on Friday evening (tonight) at Slater hall annex.

The principal feature of the evening a programme will be a paper on the famous Rheims Cathedral, written by Miss Eunice Guillver.

Cait Agency Sells Union St. Property. Through the agency of Archa W. over-coit. Mrs. Elizabeth R. Norton has sold the fine residence property known as 191 Union street. The house has nine rooms and all modern conveniences. It is in a select residence section, over-looking the little man at the interlooking the little plain at the inter-section of Broadway and Union street. It was for years the home of the late Jerome P. Williams a prominent fig-ure in local fire insurance circles: it later became the residence of Clarence P. Brath. Poliumbay his occumency. Following his occupancy.

BREED THEATRE.

Annette Kellerman shapely Queen of the Sea, is the aquatic star at the Breed theatre today and Saturday. Those who remember her famous picture. A Daughter of the Gods are promised in this latest William Fox submarine tairy story even more sensational swimming and high diving stunts combined with real dramatic situators. The art of condensation has been applied to this feature picture so that thrill follows thrill in constant crescendo, until Miss Kellerman attains a hair-raising climax with her dive of 85 feet from a high wive into veying laborers from Plainfield. tains a hair-raising climax with her diversity of $5 feet from a high wire into veying laborers from Plainfield the breakers below. This comes as a their work in the Packer Dys Work logical part of the story, where the The truck is driven by Joseph Dayo heroine is escaping from a lofty tower who for the past few years has been by walking a wire cable across a chasm when the villain cuts the sien-less than and at the same time the ower is blown up. It is a thrill worth rough the last year is now emouse to see, whereas you only head clerk. roing miles to see, whereas you only head clerk.

Heave to go to the Breed theatre.

The Hearst-Pathe news and other engineer at subjects will be shown. Special bartaln prices for this engagement; mat-mess 17 cents and evenings 22 cents.

THE WORKINGMAN'S PRAYER

Of any German swarm,
But it's up to us to hustle, for they'll
Never lick the Huns,
An' it's feelish thinking different, if

We can brag about their mettle, for

Minute nowadays. Every ship that's going over must be Loaded down with freight, An' I pray to God each cargo won't

Get to 'em just too late.
They are lads that smile at danger, an'
They've got the grit that tells;
But they'll never lick the kaiser if we
Don't provide the shells.

There's no Prussian aviator that can Beat a Yankee lad, We've got stuff in fancy flyin' that The Germans never had, But the Boche will keep on flyin' an'

By the Yankee aviator that is kept upon the ground.

We've got cloud men there in numbers
That can burst their circus wings.

But we've got to send them motors and

Way I know he can.

While we're turning out the stuff.
Can't you speed us up a little so we'll
Make it fast enough.
